I am very unhappy with C-Span's "Wash. Journal" of late -

For several months now I find myself shutting you off re call-ins - just some terribly ignorant + hate-filled viewer comments - It's getting too much to bear.

Your "question" too often evoke partisan & mean responses - eg, a few days ago you posed a ques. about "trusts Petrarchism" - the word trust connotes an implicit area of trust + distrust - why this word. You know damn well that the haters will respond negatively & the non-haters, positively -

Today - (Mon.) you raised the ques, about Carl Root - what kind of responses did you expect!

If I know the nature of viewers' comments & what they will be, what your questions will evoke, then surely you know!!!!

What are you doing?
Creating more controversy?
Sparking more rant & ignorant paranoia? Creating more haters???? Is this what you're about?
Because this is what → you are sowing ✓

Stop the hate & the name-calling! I'm calling my cable CO. to complain about your obvious biases =

Brian Lamb should know better (& I think he does) =
