Dear Brian and buddies

Being a very busy grandma and never able to get through to you all, also remembering how government took over the railroads in the '20s, the airmail in the '30s which were debacles - everything our government attempts it ruins. Our country is like the giant in Gulliver's Travels rendered helpless by a batch of pigmys.

So wanted to get through today following the sweet little lady who trusted God to right our wrongs. She's the product of today's casual Christianity rendered impotent by the Supreme Court.

No religious leader dares sermonize on Jesus' words, "Ye are gods." Our Lord believed in capital punishment for he said, "Offences will come but woe unto him through whom they come! It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck and he were cast into the sea."

Furthermore Washington should consider, "Woe unto you lawyers for you lade men with burdens greivous to be borne," and
