I am a devotee of C. Span but am very disappointed concerning the Deereberg inquiry before the Ethics Comm. After watching the 2 hours Tues. morning, I would have to stay up all night to see the rest of that day's session. On Wed., I had to be away from home in afternoon & early evening so don't know if House of Reps. recessed early & the 3rd day was available. And didn't check to see if going to be on in middle of night again.

Listening to the call-in program this morning, there appeared to me to be a lack of calls. Didn't seem surprising as I wondered who had seen it all. People who work can't stay up all night to watch, senior citizens like myself can't manage
