

Dear Brian - I have always tried to figure out if you are pro Left or Pro Right, by your body language - the other day, the 17th of Nov. I got the answer, when you gave out the white House telephone # to call in for that phoney, dishonest pole they (the white House) were conducting, I said to my husband he has to be a liberal, otherwise why would he do such a dishonest thing
