Dear Brian Lamb,

Please excuse my hurried hand-written note this morning; I am very angry about your "Phoenix, Arizona" caller last night after Governor Cuomo's address at "Harvard". I must set the record straight & you didn't seem to know how to respond to this liar.

I too heard every word that went on when the Governor was recently on "Larry King's" program. This caller to you stated that the Governor said "I'll get in the race later, but I'm not going to spend any money on the campaign". This was an absolute lie; in fact Larry never even asks the Governor if he was going to run. I gasped when I heard that man lie to you and the nation's last night. Of course, Larry & plenty of others hope he will get in. The correct reason that he did not get in last December was that "Ron Brown" gave the Governor a deadline to enter & he in good faith to New York couldn't do it. I was so angry I sent off a letter to "Chairman Brown" (a copy attached) stating my displeasure.

I also sent money to "Chicago" the start of the "Draft Cuomo" campaign, & copies of this letter to many people. I am a life-time "Registered Republican", who never voted either time for Reagan nor did I vote for George Bush. The sight & sound of him makes me sick. I have already changed my affiliation to a Democrat.

This disgruntled "Phoenix" caller, must be a "Bush" supporter, who couldn't stand the adulation that the "law students" and callers were displaying last night. I too think he's the only person who can put "Bush" back into private life.

Sincerely,

Dear Chairman Brown,

I was appalled by your decision to set a dead-line for "Governor Mario Cuomo" to enter the Democratic primaries for 1992. That will be the worst blunder of your political career.

This is not my first letter to you, for back in April 7th. 1991 I wrote you a three page letter, concerning your partys' lack of responding to both "Ronald Reagan" & "George Bush" over these past years. This is another failure!

I am a life-time registered Republican; one who did not vote either time for "Reagan" nor did I vote for "George Bush". Back on August 14th. 1991 I wrote a personal letter to the "Governor" begging him to get into the primaries. He responded immediately, and let me know that he had problems to solve there in Albany, but he did not rule out getting into the campaign. Therefore I was floored when I watched him say that he would not be one of the candidates for 1992.

I and thousands of others were just sick over this decision that he was requested to announce to the country. Everyone watching on T.V. could see what your request had done to him and to the Democratic primaries; only "George Bush" and the Republicans were in seventh heaven. I don't think that any of the other candidates have a chance to prevail over "George Bush". They just don't have it. As for me I will only vote for "Mario Cuomo" even if it has to be a write-in vote. I think that your request of the "Governor" is going to back-fire.

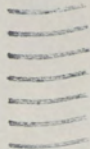

Right now, in Chicago, there is a "Draft Cuomo" grass roots campaign being organized and I am joining in. We want the candidate of our choice. We want the citizens of America to decide this election, not you. Its plain to see why you thought that you had to make this stupid Democratic move; your campaign was not getting off the ground. The REAL problem is this non-descript group of candidates. Every poll shows that "Governor Cuomo" is the most popular Democrat in the country and the only one that "President Bush" is scared of. Get with it!

I am sending a copy of this letter to the "Governor"; one to the Chicago based "Grass Roots" campaign and others to various Democratic organizations. Most of the people that I know hate your hasty decision.

Sincerely yours,
