Dear Mr. Lamb: Re: ROGER LEA MacBRIDE

I enjoy your Booknotes programs and all others very much.

May I suggest as a guest on Booknotes a very personable, intelligent and interesting attorney, a Presidential Candidate in 1976, with varied interests, whose name is ROGER LEA MacBRIDE.

He is the author of "LITTLE HOUSE ON ROCKY RIDGE" (Harper Collins Publishers), his most recent book. He is the heir to all of the "LITTLE HOUSE" books, written by Laura Ingalls Wilder, whose daughter, Rose Wilder Lane, also a writer, died in 1968 at age 81. Roger loved Rose just like a grandmother and called her "Gramma". Roger himself is a prolific writer and author of "Treaties Versus the Constitution".

Roger sent me a paperback of "Little House on Rocky Ridge" the other day. I enjoyed it very much. Everyone will enjoy reading it, children and adults (like myself). I was his secretary in New York City before 1976. I called him "my best boss", and he was.

Roger can be reached at one of his residences:
