Program Director -

I have listened to C Span for years and for the most part I have enjoyed the daily portions.

I must say I am a little weary watching Republican congressmen every morning since Congress returned in Sept. The 8 AM call in program has had a steady appearance of Republicans. I don't know if you invite them or if they request an appearance. I suspect the latter because of the announced campaign strategy of the Republican party to flood the air waves with propaganda and

... sometime lies about the opposition.
This was proved during the last election. Newt Gingrich is second in public appearances (free). All these people do appear also on special orders and it is getting tiresome and boring. They are rubber stamping the nominees of the president, and most people who watch think they shouldn't be given this free time for their biased opinion. The real good^{and} honest legislators both Republican and Democrat do not belong in this category.

The reporters Round Table on Friday is usually stacked 2 to 1 by Republicans. It can be very frustrating to people who know they are slanting their answers in favor of George Bush.

Sincerely
Miss [redacted]
