BOOKNOTES

2001-08-26

In any future great national trial, compared with the men of this, we shall have as weak and as strong, as silly and as wise, as bad and as good. Let us therefore study the incidents of this, as philosophy to learn wisdom from, and none of them as wrongs to be revenged.

—ABRAHAM LINCOLN

The effect of power and publicity on all men is the exaggeration of the self and a sort of tumor that ends by killing the victim's sympathies.

—HENRY ADAMS

There is nothing new in the world but the history you do not know.

—HARRY S. TRUMAN
