Dear Brian Lamb,

I am a regular listener of C-SPAN.

The fact you received today on your Round Table pointing out the liberal bias of your recent guests is becoming quite apparent.

For Richard Cohen, today, to say he does not see a liberal bias in the "Press" - is a perfect example of the problem!
When it is a Republican or Conservative who is on the hot seat - you have a "FEEDING FRENZY" of "news" AND companion stories, one after another; day after day; and on and on - until their objective is achieved. And this is done non-stop & hand in hand with TV & news magazines.

From the desk of...

When it is a Democrat or Liberal on the hot seat - you receive a "news report" - period. And you receive this report briefly & without the feeding frenzy follow up done on and done to Republicans.

So please, explain feeding frenzy vs "news report" to Mr. Cohen.

In the Clinton administration we have had:

- ① - No foreign policy at all
- ② - A President who reacts to polls - but refuses to or cannot lead.
- ③ - A squad of aides in the Clinton administration specifically to do damage control on "BIMBO" eruptions.
- ④ - Travelgate - (underreported)
- ⑤ - Ron Brown gate
- ⑥ - Trooper gate
- ⑦ - Vince Foster gate
(he did not commit suicide in the rack)

From the desk of...

- ⑧ - Muscbaumgate in raiding & cleaning out Foster's office & keeping the FBI out.
- ⑨ - S. Heedergate (of Whitewater papers)
- ⑩ - Whitewatergate & all its companion stories
- ⑪ - A Co-President, never elected, whom the Press thinks literally walks on water & so treats her.
- ⑫ - A President whose character is very much in question, if not downright lacking.

And a host of others I can't possibly take the time to put down.

How do you trust a man & his decisions & actions when you see him so seriously flawed? And socialist?

I thank you
