Thank you, thank you, thank you, for televising individuals, organizations and events that are important to our nation. CNN, CBS, NBC and ABC are more concerned about events in other nations. I would also like to thank C-SPAN for televising interesting people, like John Stockwell and Dr. Parenti. The ACLU and the Libertarian party are far more interesting than the Senate, House of Representatives, or Republicans and Democrats.

I hope C-SPAN will reduce its coverage of the Congress. They are so boring it's pitiful. They bicker back and forth, they talk the same old garbage. They're boring, boring, boring. Please give more air time to people like Dr. Parenti and John Stockwell. Republicans and Democrats are more boring than watching reruns of "Starsky and Hutch".

Listening to members of the ACLU and the Libertarian party is much more refreshing and stimulating. Congressmen and Senators are depressing.

Sincerely,
