

C- Span : All this talk about Supreme Court judges makes me want to ask. Can anyone tell me how to get the judges to argue a case, the question, Do the associated male leaders, that believe in fighting wars - believe in the God that expressed His will in His ten laws - the law, thou shalt not kill? If they believe in doing all the killing that is done in fighting wars. The laws were laid down by this God, that so many people, their MALE leaders say they believe in, but the question is- are the leaders liars when they SAY they believe, and they break God's law- thou shalt not kill, like it has always been broken when human males, led by male leaders, are the kind of killers that men have been, from the days of Cain and Abel. If sin is transgression of God's law- where could you ever find any greater transgression than in the killing humans male have done in fighting, their male fights, that are called, in man's case, wars.

I think the male leaders are liars-. If they believe in fighting wars they do not, they never have believed in the God that expressed His will, in His laws- THE LAW, thou shalt not kill.

How do we get the Supreme Court interested in arguing, getting a problem like this solved?

Male leaders are protecting the male of our species - his old established male beliefs.

How can the male of a species that has to be restrained by law - know how to be laws administrator ? What can a species that has to be restrained by law know about justice?

How fit to be free is a species that has to be restrained by law?

What we need to know is the truth about our species- if we want our social problems solved.

People take too much for granted because human minds could never " serve two masters. "

When nature's evil, whims, what it can do to people, with all of its, other, evil forces - other than the evil nature in human males that keeps them fighting each other- they cripple, kill, destroy human life- cause misery, suffering and death, and the way the male leaders, manage human affairs forces people to give too much of their MIND and TIME to just trying to get their basic needs met- what it takes to STAY ALIVE, reproduce, raise off-spring- their mind and time cannot be given to doing the kind of dedicated study it takes to know the truth about man, our own human, two sex, SPECIES- we are just one of the many- TWO sex species- in a TWO sex plan that obeys nature's dictates in getting what is needed to stay alive, reproduce get old and die. All, two sex, species do it .. Black, white, brown, yellow and all the shades in between- horses, cattle, pigs, sheep and PEOPLE- they are species. All this talk about human rights, civil rights, minorities is really stupid - because no matter what color people are they are people, males and females of one of the many two sex species that inhabit this earth- We are a species that has to be restrained by law. WHY ?

That is what I want to know. What in our nature makes us need such restraints ?

I have wanted to know how Rabbis, and Popes, explain the actions of men, that are led by them- when their actions speak so much louder than the words in God's law- thou shalt not kill. How do they explain man's action ?

the associated church, its MALE leaders are under God and Christs command- where they can be judged- we have the Ten laws, two commands and what Christ did about the law to go by in doing it.

The problem is- how do we get it done ?

The leaders are male. They are protecting their old established male beliefs .

I would like to ask Judge Black mun why Rabbis, Popes - the beginning male leaders were not judged under God's laws, Christs commands, in the beginning .

My belief is, the male leaders have been wrong from the very beginning- if the Jews had obeyed God's law- if the killing, lying, coveting. stealing and committing adultery had stopped, that long ago- Christ would not have had to do what He did- prove His love for God by trusting His will as it was expressed in the TEN laws, enough, to become their fulfiller. Any man that does not kill, lie, covet, steal or commit adultery exposes error in the ways of male that do it- if they have leadership aspirations, like the men that got Christ killed had- they will do what Adam did, in the Garden, point the accusing finger, to keep attention centered off of their sins , mistakes, the errors in their ways.

It got Christ killed but nothing was ever done about the male leaders mistakes, the breaking of God's law. Man's wars have done it!

It seems to me that if we want to believe we are civilized- its time to stop doing it.

That is why I would like to see the Supreme Court Judges argue the case- can the male leaders believe in fighting wars if they believe in the God that expressed HIS WILL in the law- THOU shalt not kill?

I believe it is impossible!

My hypothesis is, theory is- the sex problems and wars suggest it. The males, in the two sex species all have the same male instincts.. Man's brain works under their influence, they control his thinking, overpower his reasoning powers. That has to be true when men will kill people on an earth that is so good at doing it with all of its other evil forces. Natures doing it, is one thing- but when men , that have brains, they are supposed to be able to think, reason do it- that calls for intervention because women make themselves responsible for human life when they let it be born. It is a RESPONSIBILITY that gives women a RIGHT to object, protest, raise hell with men in general- when what they do harms their young. War does it. ~~It~~ advocates being brutal, violent, cruel mean, inhuman, uncivilized using GUNS, killing people as the right way to solve social problems.

The last part of that FIRST AMENDMENT might state - people can petition government for a redress of their grievances but where the leaders are male - in both CHURCH and State, they are male - women never had anyplace to go to get their petitioning done- when wars, having their sons killed in man's male fights have caused them such great grievance, because the leaders are MALES that believe in doing it. It is an established MALE beliefs.

Can men do it- if they believe in God, Christ ? They have done it but are they liars, not telling humanity the truth- I want to know. I believe humanity has been lied to and misled.

AS I see it, the TEN laws, two commands are what makes the Bible relevant- they relate that BOOK to LIVING- not DYING! Laws control the male, female instincts in people that their brain cannot control, The Bible's object was to get the male instincts in man controlled so he could be HUMAN.

HUMAN intelligence cannot be raised off of the level its being held on by male leaders, in both CHURCH and state, that believe in doing to humanity what wars do. It's evil- and men will have to burn their history books if they want crime and violence stopped. If they believed in Christ they would not be killing, lying, coveting stealing or committing adultery- He proved ~~his~~ love for God by not doing it- if men believed in Christ- they would not be doing it - If male instincts, in men, were as controlled as they were in Christ -- the killing, lying, coveting, stealing and committing adultery would stop, and guns would become passe- nobody would need them.

In the meantime, we could find out what makes people- kill, lie, covet, steal and commit adultery- we could take that approach and get something done about it. We have faith until we can see the reason. Then we take it from there.

I can see the logic in the law, thou shalt not kill- anybody can see it if they will study what is stacked against humanities survival in what all of natures other evil forces can do to it.

If people put the seal of approval in killing, lying, coveting, stealing and committing adultery, by doing it- how can they say doing it is wrong? Men have been killers their doing it is recorded in history books- how can they say what women do, when they abort human life is wrong, how can they- judge DR, Jack Kevorkian-- when men put so much into fighting wars that there is nothing left for doing human life saving research- men like DR, Jack are the merciful men- especially for the people that cannot have anything done, for them, because the doctors are all so IGNORANT. They are ignorant as long as money can be made off of suffering humanity, they won't put the kind of effort it takes, into knowing the truth, finding out what is producing the problems.

It's all cause and effect. If people did not have to be killed by diphtheria, smallpox, cripples and killed by polio, it's a fore runner - that makes it evident, they do not have to be killed, the way they are being killed, by what is killing people., today.

Money is the root of all evil because when human minds are given to making money they cannot be given to doing the kind of dedicated study it takes to know the truth about this earth's limited resources, the TWO sex reproducing species, on it- including the human,

If the male leaders knew how much was ENOUGH, in getting what people need to stay alive, reproduce, raise off spring- that would make a BIG difference- If they knew how to get a balance struck between this earth's limited resources and the needs of the two SEX, reproducing species - that would make a BIG difference-

Man's way is, not thinking about doing that- MEN KILL, and nothing has ever stopped them. They get their young males killed in their male fights - that are as territorial as the fight of any of the other males. It's the way male instincts work in males. Male animals are more human than humans- they just run their younger males off- men get them killed in their wars - WHY, does the male of our species have a big problem in sperm production that has never been expressed because men do not want humanity to know they have it- what suggests they do, is the problems men have with sex, its reported in the Bible, history books, rape, incest, child molestation- the demand that get a crop of prostitutes produced, men being as promiscuous as any of the other males. It stands to reason the production of sperm in man's body could make him have a problem- its a living organism that is manufactured in the males body-

It becomes a parasite in the females body where it is protected and nourished for nine months. That puts control in the hands of women, she can let it live or she can get rid of it and if men are going to keep on killing people, in their male fights - it is all the excuse she needs for doing it- why let it be born to suffer what the human species has been suffering- if men place so little VALUE on it, that they can do to it what they do, and have always done to it, in fighting wars. IT takes a degree of callousness,, thoughtlessness, people have to be cruel- instinct has to be able to overpower reasoning power in PEOPLE, men and women, to let children be born to suffer why they have. That is why I want rabbis and Popes- the associated male leaders judged under God's law- I want it stopped. and who am I to make such a demand- nothing but a woman, a mother that is driven by an overwhelming sense of guilt that started developing in me when my youngest son was involved in that " hot " Vietnam fight.. It made me study the male of our species, his old established male beliefs. My father's job was saving human life- He was a DR., M. D. and when I thought about it, I could not see any sense to his putting the kind of effort he put into trying to keep people alive, and well, when the smartest men ~~on~~ earth believe in doing the kind of whole sale HUMAN slaughter that is done in fighting wars .

What sense is their, to health reform- - what is being done to save human lives- all the progress made in the field of medicine- the progress made in all the other ways -when human males can, they are FREE to blast ppeople, and what has been accomplished off of the face of this earth with their bombs and missiles- don't we NEED to know what makes men do it ? Isn't that taking- " first things first? "

It should have been done in the beginning but- it was not because making a living took too much time- now its different - labor saving devices have freed human minds, they can now be given to studying our species leader, its male- he can be studied, the truth about him can be learned, and its the one, all important truth that humanity needs to know if it wants to be freed from its many problems. Wars.

It is what we have minds for- where salvation lies.. I believe the male leaders are afraid of the human mind. It explains their wanting all human minds controlled by their MALE beliefs.

I question their right to do it when we are a TWO SEX species, and women have very different sex natures, and minds of their own, Do the male leaders have a right to do it when they experience living as mnalees and it gives them a male perspective that puts limits on their social vision.- men cannot speak for, or represent, women any place they are not women.

The Constitution gave me the idea- where people have a Constitution that guarantees for them, free speech and press they are made responsible for getting all TRUTH learned- so that all beliefs can be based on it- to keep humanity from, being misled by male leaders that are more interested in gaining CONTROL than they are in telling humanity THE TRUTH

I think male leaders have that kind of affliction. Males fight, compete in trying to gain control because being in control insures their getting their basic needs MET.

That becomes the main object in living after the reproducing instinct, in people, overpowers their reasoning power and they are given life.

WE have to forgive men because they are not their own creator, not self made, not their own idea- Our species never asked to be given life, or to be put on an earth that has a love, hate relationship with all of its TWO SEX species- It provides for them and it KILLS THEM,

It's killing people like it does, with its other evil powers, : ould have made the male leaders see the logic in the law - thou shalt not kill. Men are not the "care givers" that could be the reason why they do what they do.

It costs males nothing to produce progeny - they are never caught with the " goods, " they are not handicapped by their off spring. The male sex is the detached, uninhibited sex that has had its own way on earth and notjhing insures any of

Is the male leaders beliefs being based on THE TRUTH- We could get them based on it if we could get speech and press freed from MALE control- How do we get that done ?

When Popes- the male leaders in the Catholic church can stand by and do nothing about the killing that men do in fighting wars- I want them judged under God's law. Laws that they can be judged under When Congress shall make no laws- God's laws can prohibit the freedom of the religions. If they are not telling humanity the truth they need to be held accountable- reprimanded .

Something interesting about this- women can judge men- the male leaders in both church and state under the law- thou shalt not kill. Men have broken that law in fighting wars- the males of our species fight each other- the wars most of them have been fought by men.

If men and women were judged under that law, today- human males would be the losers.

Men may not want to believe this but its true- They are alive and on earth because women have let them live-.

They could have all been aborted.

Is that a bargaining chip that could be used to get a stop put to what males do to humanity when wars are fought ?

They can be judged under God's law- women can do it and they can say to the male leaders - stop killing people, fighting wars- make living on earth better, improve humanities lot, here on earth let God's will, as it is expressed in His laws, replace yours - or we will let only a few males live. It works for the other species why not use it in populating this earth with people ?

Where there is a WILL there is always a WAY .

Women may not need the Supreme Court .

The input in managing human affairs has always come from male minds that are on the reproducing level in human development the men are not old and they are not boys - It explains the great interest in sex- wars being fought. The trouble with men is- they never get off of that level. Their bodies are sperm producers until the day they die. Women are given a reprieve. It gives them time to think about other things. Marriage laws tried to get the length of the males reproductive years shortened to the length of the females. That seldom works. Could it be- sperm production in men could get this earth so overpopulated with people it would have become unbearable a long time ago if the killing that men do, the killing that natures evil forces do had not had hot run some intervention.

There has to be a more humane way- there is- know the TRUTH- I question the word love where men believe in fighting wars-

The only kind of love that can be associated with SEX is self love because all that is ever sought oin the sex act is self gratification, Where male control is so complete- its forced human females that have the common need of all females they need mates, they are handicapped by children- its forced women to give too much of their mind and time to trying to be "MAN pleasers- " but, what sense does it make - where the males place so little value on human life that they can believe in doing to it, what wars do ?
