Dear Friends:

That was quite a hatchet-job David Brock did on C-SPAN this morning.

David Brock would say anything, print anything & imply anything to destroy anyone who opposes the radical right agenda.

David Brock is the author of "The Real Anita Hill". He quoted two students of hers who said they found her pubic hairs in their text books. Questioned later they admitted it was a joke. Some joke!

David Brock is disgusting & has no credibility.

Shame on you C-SPAN

Sincerely,
