

March 30, 1999

Dear Brian Lamb,

I cannot tell you how much, how very very much I appreciate you and C-Span; and I am astonished and delighted to find out how it was established and funded and funded and carried on.

I have wondered a little at the tight ~~format~~ format. Now I see what's happening and why. It's funny, really, how the TV cameras could bring the business of government to a screeching halt just by exposing how it's done. Actually, it's about time the behind the ropes deals were given full coverage. We could then address the trading skills of our representatives, and one would hope they are somewhat more skilled in that area than our unfortunate President seems to be in his areas of dalliance.

Thanks for all the excellent author interviews, and the books chosen.

I wish you and all those good people behind C-span long life & great fortune Sincerely,

[Redacted signature]