Re: British House of Commons

Dear Sir/Madam:

I wrote to you on February 8, 1983 because I was not pleased about your apparently new policy of not giving viewers the constituency district of the Members of Parliament who are addressing the Prime Minister on "Prime Minister's Question Time". This information has been given by C-SPAN for many years and we have come to rely on it to help us understand the problems and concerns in all areas of the British Isles. Without the above information, we viewers have no way of identifying the area the MP is from.

I would like to hear from you concerning your reasons for discontinuing this practice and whether you plan on reinstating this information to us.

Sincerely,
[REDACTED]
