

"Genesis of a Music"

Pacifica Radio

North Hollywood, California 91604

HOME=

Anaheim, CA - 92804

October 2, 1993

C-SPAN Programming (Music)

WDC

To the Music Programmers:

May I suggest a well-deserved change in your music selections used during votes? I'm driven by a day where the SAME PIECE was repeated over and over and over!

These are not in public domain, but I'm confident that Sony would give you a written exemption for their use. The composer wished his music to be in the public domain, and believed that the US needed much more direct participation in Democracy.

I suggest Charles Ives's First Symphony (Sony CD SK 44939, # 1-4) and his Second Symphony (SK 46440, # 1-3). Both are accessible and in line with your guidelines as listed in your viewer guide. [No editorializing.] Please contact Sony and pursue this!

As a recognized Ives scholar and devoted C-SPAN viewer,

I remain,

Sincerely,

KPFA-FM 94.1/KPFB-FM 89.3 Berkeley, CA • KPFT-FM 90.1 Houston, TX • WBAI-FM 99.5 New York, NY
WPFW-FM 89.3 Washington, D.C. • Pacifica Foundation National Office North Hollywood, CA • Pacifica Program Service/Radio Archive Los Angeles, CA
Pacifica Radio News Washington, D.C.

P.S. Both symphonies are reminiscent of Dvorak. Sony sent me promo copies.

[REDACTED]
Anaheim, CA 92804

002594 OCT 793

~~002594 OCT 793~~
SPAN Programming
400 N. Capitol St. NW, Ste. 650
Washington, DC 20001