To whom it may concern:

I watched your program - Journalist Roundtable - late last night, Oct. 12. I hope I have the address correct. Till I got paper & pen I had to scurry and I have only seen your program perhaps once or twice before. This was the one with John Lofton as one of the guests.

I am always amazed and appalled at the rudeness to callers displayed on your show. If it weren't for the callers, your discussions would not be as interesting or broad. Yet the caller is cut off in mid-sentence often and is usually treated with an appearance of disdain - as if the "experts" (and the world

2 is full of them today!) on your show are all knowledgeable and the callers are either insipid or somewhat stupid. I'm amazed you get any callers at all considering the treatment shown them.

Please try, Mr. Moderator, to get off your arrogant high-horse and show some respect and humility!
Sincerely,

P.S. What is "Mother Jones"?
I tuned in after your show was in progress.
