

December 6, 1993

Mr. Brian Lamb
CSPAN
400 N. CAPITAL, NW, SUITE 650
WASHINGTON, DC 20001

Dear Mr. Lamb,

I know Liberals fear ideas, other wise why would there not be more conservative view points expressed. And I believe Kevin Phillips description as the inventor of "country and western" Marxism fits him aptly. How would your Liberal viewers feel having Newt Gingrich as their spokesman? That is the way we feel about Mr. Phillips.

On Friday mornings, on the Journalist Round Table, we have no representation. Don't tell me that you can even say that you find it interesting having everyone there parroting the party line. Now hold on--I know this is a scary thought--but what if--hold on to your chair--you had TWO conservative pundits on at the same time? Would the sky fall? Thank you for taking the time to read this letter.

Sincerely Yours;

Carlsbad, NM 88220-4003

Home:

Fax:

1642 3/84

MIDLAND, TEXAS 79701

ATTN: Mr. Brian Lamb
CSPAN
400 N. Capital St. NW, Suite 650
Washington, DC 20001

