Dear Brian,

Once again I am writing to encourage you to invite Barbara Honneger to appear either for your "Book Notes" program, or as a call-in guest. With the upcoming trial of John Poindexter, her appearance on C-Span would be very current. Her expertise on this subject would be most valuable and informative.

Miss Honneger has not been idle since the publication of her book, October Surprise. She has appeared on various radio stations across the country. Most recently she has been appearing on various Cable Network programs in Los Angeles, Hollywood, Oregon, and on National Radio. In March she will be appearing on Miami Cable to discuss her book, and issues pertaining to Iran-Contra and John Poindexter's trial, at which former President Reagan will give video tape testimony.

Because of your stated purpose of bringing balance to the C-Span Networks, I can see no valid reason for your not wanting her to appear.

Miss Honneger can be reached at [REDACTED], or at her mailing address which is [REDACTED] Pacific Grove, CA. 93950.

Enclosed is a stamped, self-addressed envelope and a little questionnaire for you to check and return to me. I do this because I know you are a very busy man, and do not have the time to answer letters you receive. Thank you for taking the time to read my letter.

Sincerely,
