

Date sent: Sat, 13 Sep 1997 15:46:40 -0500 (CDT)
To: viewer@c-span.org
From: [REDACTED]
Subject: View comments
Copies to: [REDACTED]

Dear Program Manager,

As a faithful C-SPAN viewer of many years, I am outraged to see that Dr. Keyes is being placed in the back of your network "bus". Has your network been taken over by Clinton Liberals?

On Behalf of Dr. Keyes and the many millions of voters, supporters, and C-SPAN listeners, I demand that Dr. Keyes speech at the CC be aired in prime viewing time.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
Evanston, IL

>Return-Path: <davidq@SoCA.com>
>Date: Fri, 12 Sep 1997 23:30:52 -0700
>From: [REDACTED]
>Reply- [REDACTED]
>To: [REDACTED]
>Subject: C-SPAN stiff us again
>X-MIME-Autoconverted: from 8bit to quoted-printable by mail-gw2.pacbell.net id XAA15024

>
>Just several weeks after C-SPAN last stiffed >Ambassador Keyes, by covering every other -- I >repeat, EVERY other -- potential Republican >presidential candidate at the Midwestern >Republican Leadership Conference except Keyes, >they are apparently doing it again.
>
>C-SPAN's schedule for Saturday shows that they >will cut away from the Christian Coalition Road to >Victory Conference minutes before Ambassador Keyes >is scheduled to speak, so that they can show a >TAPE of the opening session of the Chinese

>Communist Party Congress in Beijing, recorded two >days earlier. Lest you think that I am having >feverish dreams, I append the posted schedule >below.

>
>In case you are tired of being treated like shmoes
>by the network whose official charter is to open >up the American political process, here are some >contact numbers. Why don't we tell them what we >think.

>

>
>

>
>E-mail: viewer@c-span.org

>

>

>
>Address all >non-electronic correspondence to
>C-SPAN
>400 North Capitol
>Street N.W.

>Suite 650
>Washington, D.C.
>20001

>Telephone Numbers
>Front Desk (202)

>737-3220

>Washington Journal:
>Democrats (202) 624-1111

>Washington Journal:
>Republicans (202) 624-1115

>Washington Journal:
>Others (202) 737-6734

>Washington Journal:
>FAX (202) 393-3346

>Jobs Line (202)
>626-7983

>Viewer Services:
>(202) 626-7963

>

>08:30am to 01:00pm ET

>

>05:30am to 10:00am PT