To whom this may concern,

On Monday, October 16th, at 2:00 AM, on C-Span, I had the privilege of seeing a program that was very interesting, to say the least.

The Nation of Islam, had a racist program on, that all America should have had the opportunity to view.

What bothered me most about this program, was the fact that it was aired at a time, when most Americans were sleeping, as they had to get off to work, in the morning.

I feel that C-Span should have aired this piece, over again, when all America could have seen, the real meaning behind the Million Man March.

What a shame that our networks white washed the real reason behind the march - hate for the whites, Jews and Catholics.

Your network did the American public an injustice by not repeating this program, as generally is done on C-Span. Therefore not showing the Nation of Islam in true retrospect.

By the way I am an avid follower and listener of C-Span.

If at all possible, I would like to hear your reason for not repeating this particular telecast.

I remain,
