Dear Sir:

I have enjoyed listening and watching the many varied programs you telecast, particularly the dump of the "House of Incumbents". I must admit though that when electronic votes are taken, I cannot understand when the time clock shows 00:00, why the Speaker will not shut off the voting immediately but instead allows voting to continue until the non-voting group is less than double digits in number. I imagine that since the House is controlled by the Democratic Party they can do just about as they please regarding voting by electronic lever.

On the transmittal of the War in the Persian Gulf I do not see why pictures of our POWs taken by the Baghdad press had to be shown to the American public. Also I cannot understand why you talk about Iraqi civilian casualties all the time, which information is based on what the Iraqi press declares and we know they lie like a rug. Also when there is a war, unfortunately civilians suffer but I refuse to believe but little of Peter Arnett's comments because he is under heavy Iraqi censorship. In fact I think he tends to do more harm to the American morale than good.

I listen to the military briefings usually around 3:30 & 6:00 PM - one from Riyadh, Saudi Arabia and the other from the Pentagon and that's all I need. I do not wish to listen to so called military and naval experts discuss the technical side of the war. I am satisfied with what the above mentioned briefing disclose about the progress of the war and that's all I need to know. and I might add, several of my friends feel the same way.

Very truly yours,
