To C-span producer,
I watched your report on C-span about the abortion controversy on April 22, 1992.

I felt your show was very biased.
The only people shown in front of the Supreme Court protesting were those who represented the pro-abortion side. I'm sure pro-life people were there also. I did not see them or their signs.
I did see one man surrounded by young people arguing about abortion. I'm sure this man wasn't the only pro-life protector there.

Then, at the end of the evening call-in discussion, you showed the address for the ACLU, but I didn't see any address for the other side.

Please review your reporting and present both sides without bias.

Thank you
