

Dear C. Span Mgr.

I have always respected your coverage of our legislators and have a high regard for what you do.

I have now lost all respect for your station because of the live telephone calls and your handling of such. There was a show which aired several times the day before "Super Tuesday". You had one of the newscasters from CNN on, taking telephone calls.

One particular caller, calling from San Diego, Calif was commenting on CNN's coverage of Jerry Brown and how he felt (as I do) that Jerry Brown was being persecuted (my word) by the media.

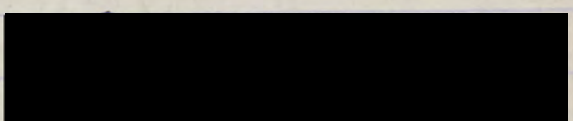

He (the caller) was cut off in the middle of his call and the "snake on the grass" (CNN Newscaster) answered in such a typically snide (of him) answer, I had to write this letter.

It am madder than hell
over the whole media favoritism
issue.

It feel you are all becoming scared of the public and their reactions to this presidential election, especially in the case of Jerry Brown.

We'll get ready because the
"we the people" movement is growing and you may be able to squash us out this election
but sooner or later we'll prevail and this world will be a much fairer and just
place to live.

Sincerely,

P.S. This was just one instance!
