

C-Span,

Nov 1, 1993

Today we watched C-Span & we always do because we feel C-Span at least tries to be unbiased. Don't you? You had a radio commentator from Portland Oregon by name of Bill Gallagher taking call in comments & voicing his own slant on their reaction to the Sen. Packwood situation.

Mr Gallagher was obviously a very Liberal media commentator. Being one of the 90% Liberal media, & this is a free country, that is par for the course.

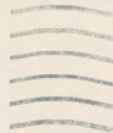

However C-Span if your cable network is so unbiased as I believe you are you will show it by having Mr Gallagher's opposite Mr Rush Limbaugh do the same thing on C-Span for the same length of time, facing his fairly radio show.

As far as Sen. Packwood is concerned, he may be innocent or guilty or sin. All this appears to be a blatant diversion by the Liberal spinners of the ethics committee. The diversion - indictment of Rep. Nornton Kowalski & Sen. of Commerce Ron Brown both radical Liberals.

C-Span, you answer to me or to equal time regarding Mr. Rush Limbaugh & his radio show on C-Span??

Very Sincerely,
