Mr. Brian Lamb (& Marge Amey)

Dear Mr. Lamb;

I am a avid viewer of C-Span and I appreciate your program. I also would like to express my opinion about the President. I do not believe him, or trust him. I think he is a skirt-chaser and womenizer. I am of the opinion he has a character problem.

My husband is a democrat and supports him. Which I cannot understand.

I am a republican and I didn't vote for "Clinton". I do not ever get polled. I believe Clinton has pulled the wool over everyones eyes. He's a con-artist.

The obstruction of justice is very real, and he hasn't told the truth.

Accountability is important, and so is character, honesty & integrity. I think that President Clinton has done a detrimental disservice to the office of the president. And with all the soft money and foreign contributions which are against the law is wrong. This is bad for our country and a great disregard of the laws. Remember that the Democrats controlled congress for over 40 years. Most of these laws were put in place by them. Now, (Since Watergate) they are complaining about the consequences of their own laws affecting themselves.

I have tried to call you but cannot get through, and I don't have a computer. In case you are taking a poll - I think Pres. Bill Clinton, should step aside, and admit the wrongdoing he is guilty of. I am sorry for his daughter.

I am enlightened because I watch your program, and read the Wall Street Journal, and several books. I used to listen to Rush Limbaugh on the radio during the day, but my husband of 45 years, forbids me to have it on in our house. (garbage he calls it) I think Rush is right, and was always right about the Clintons. My husband is smart, and was a blue collar worker all his life. He worked for over 31 years for Sikorsky Helicopters in Stratford CT. where we used to live. I was a stay at home Mother, of 6, while he worked to provide for us. We moved to Florida in 1992. permanently. I wanted to stay in Connecticut, which most of my friends were, and family was. But, I always listened and obeyed my husband. The only enjoyment in life is C-Span, and reading. My husband did run a home improvement business in CT. also, which we gave to 2 sons. I believe a husband should not deceive his wife, by running around, (Adultery).

My husband served in the U.S.A.F. for 8 years. He was born on a farm and raised in Kentucky. Left home at 18yrs. and went to school (trade school) in Baltimore Md. Before entering the service. He didn't dodge the service when they called him. He did serve for the United States of America. He learned the aircraft technician trade. In fact after we married in 1952, he worked for Republic Aviation out on Long Island N.Y. after the Air Force. But, he got laid-off from that job and that is how we got to Connecticut, because the job opening that was up there. So we moved from Long Island to CT. in 1956.

I think the middle class is being squeezed by taxes too much. So there will only be a two class system. Either the Rich, or the poor. (no more middle)

Another thing I am not able to understand is...why we don't help the homeless people I see many down here, standing on the side of the road with signs- "WILL WORK FOR FOOD". Though this country still spends too much on foreign-aid.

I wonder why do we let so many people come in to this country if there aren't enough jobs to fill. I also wonder why they can get on social security when they didn't pay into it.

I am receiving a Social Security check every month of $428.00. Because my husband told me to start collecting at 62yrs. of age. I wanted to get a job and go to work, now that I do not have a family to raise anymore. He said: "NO"!

I wanted to wait until I was 65 before taking from Social Security. I have just turned 64yrs. old as of 12/28/33.

My husband is 74 years old. and his pension doesn't come to me when he dies. Guess I'll have to go to work when he's not here anymore. But, who will hire me? I probably haven't the qualifications for this new world of communications. I can just barely type, on this typewriter. At one time when I was young I could take dictation, and type quite good, but that was in 1950 & 1951.

I wish so much that the persons we elect to serve in our Congress & Senate were doing the peoples business, and not there to raise their own salaries, and in it for themselves. I know Ross Perot was right. I supported him, and what he stood for. I feel the media blasted him out of the Presidency. I felt he was honest, and trustworthy.

I only had a high school education, and a short 1 year business school. I used to work long ago, in a bank in NYC. I was raised in Queens, N.Y. The first Pres. I was able to vote for was- General Dwight D. Eisenhower. in 1952.

I supported mostly the Republican candidates in elections. I think anybody would have been better than Bill Clinton.

Please forgive me for mailing you this long letter. I am frustrated, and I still have my 90 year old Mother to deal with. I haven't been this frustrated with the way things are in a long time.

My Dad worked for the Associated Press in Rockefeller Center from 1931 until 1967 when he retired. He smoked, Camels a lot and died Jan.9th, 1980. (Age 79) He was a wonderful smart man.(Ralph E. Smith) So long, and Thanks for a great program..Sincerely,

P.S. Excuse mistakes
