Washington, D. C. 20001

To whom it may concern:

I watch C. Spaw because the programs bring improved insight about important issues. This knowledge makes me a better-informed citizen.

We have a precious experiment continuing in our country - democracy. It will survive only if we pay attention to our responsibilities as a member of this society.

C - Span plays an important part in the broad educational process required to make sound individual choices, as part of a national consensus that is the keystone of the republican form of government we enjoy.

Continue your very fine efforts to give us information about legislative, national and local events that impact our way - of - life.

Very truly yours
