I WATCH C-SPAN BECAUSE,

I thoroughly enjoy the wide spectrum of in-depth discussions, diverse opinions, and topics of interest.

The program is always presented by unbiased moderators, who are not only articulate when conversing with the callers, but do so with such an unassuming, and charming manner.

My interest in political views has been enhanced by the direct spontaneity of the questions, and answers, posed by the interesting guests, and callers, giving me a better understanding of what's of prime importance across the nation.

The reading of various newspaper articles has been especially stimulating, as it keeps the people abreast of up to the minute, newsworthy subjects and events.

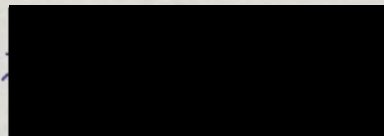

The program is outstanding, and delightfully different, in that it not only gives us the opportunity to express our feelings, but enables us to sense the pulse of the public from Maine to California.

C-Span not only exemplifies the fact that freedom of the press is one of our greatest assets, but illuminates in vivid portrayal it's importance.

I feel that the frequent accolades C-Span receives are well deserved, for it brings real pleasure, and enlightenment into our living rooms.

Wishing you continued success,

Sincerely,
