Phone Lines

Dear Mr. Lamb,

Please tell me what I heard you say this morning is not true. "You will keep the split lines for callers"...Both Connie and Susan have said for several months that you would get back to normal after the election...When I found C-Span two years ago I felt you were at least one channel I could trust, guess I was wrong. I have felt comfortable with most of you at C-span, even bought the mugs to drink out of each morning as I watched. Please sir, don't go back on the word of your women anchors. Give the people back the real C-Span!
