Dear C-SPAN

On Tuesday and Wednesday this week, you were television as it should be, at its best. You took me to Stewart Airbase in Newburgh, NY, and then to Nixon's home in Yorba Linda, CA. You took me there to watch, with others; you let me see it all, and think, and feel, and remember, and hope -- in the silence of a respectful crowd of other people. You kept silent. Thank you for letting me be there. Thank you for TV at its best. [redacted]
