

[REDACTED]
Bayside, New York 11360

Fax: [REDACTED]

August 24, 1993

C-Span
Viewer Mail
400 N. Capitol
Suite 650
Washington, D.C.

002594 AUG 31 93

Dear Mr. Lamb:

SHAME ON YOU! It has appeared that you have sold your soul to H.Ross Perot. The show you had the audacity to air was so obviously a paid infomercial for UWSA and a paid tool once again to DUPE the people of this country. Who are you to be a part of enhancing this man's image, flash UWSA's address, and not pursue in your questioning in a professional journalistic manner, as Tim Russert did?

It was obvious that when you tried to put your "big toe" into the water Ross intimidated you. Your facial expressions were that of disbelief at times, yet you allowed him to continue with his B.S.

I bet if we dissidents investigated long and hard enough, we would find a large sums of monies deposited into your account. If not, YOU ARE A WIMP! There is no reason for you not to pursue the questioning of the cuts in hospital waste. How ridiculous! Then he says he "didn't have the information with him." Where does he keep it under his bed?????

Today I watched your show with Pat Buchanan and Christopher Hitchens. I think the people were unfair to criticize your choice of Hitchens. I thought Hitchens was honest. Buchanan gets enough "air time". You could have had anyone else but him and his pompous one sided Republican jargon.

Our group sent you only a sample of documents of what we have uncovered in UWSA. Why didn't you contact US to appear on your show? We can certainly take the heat more than you obviously can. Are you thinking of ratings more than the truth? If so, than our ratings would soar. WE WANT EQUAL TIME! Whatever your reasoning or rationalization is, you have appeared to have lost your objectivity, which is what good journalism is all about.

A concerned citizen striving for democracy,

Bayside
New York 11360

Mr. Brian Lamb
C-Span-Viewer Mail
400 N. Capitol - Suite 650
Washington, D.C.

