I try watching all your telecast shows. One, most recent, was your interview of two male journalists (^{David} Ganger and Bradley), and a female (that actually sounded like another John Rose much like Amb. Carla Hills,) however, I imagine if one hangs around another individual long enough than self pride is offered for greedy favor, or possess a mind that can be "brain-washed." I quickly learned too hate a blame Jap 47 years ago, and I certainly do not have the slightest admiration toward any Japanese this day. I'd say Japs have been with evil nature for more than 400 years, and has no balanced sign of changing. They surely do not have Christian morals whatsoever, that's for certain. They are naturally tricky, and not dependable, yet smooth back tongued fibbers. Yes, majority are actually intelligent in regardless of my dislike for them. They sure have plenty, American fooled.
