

O. Amer Pro

Christmas Day

Dear Brian Lamb,

What a gift you have given us this year ...

An historical antedote to the Clinton crisis ...

The balanced presentation of every president ... Pres. Andrew Johnson's impeachment helped with the Clinton crisis ...
The oval office summary with many presidents helped restore respect to ~~the~~^{the} political place it has had — once again a healthy antedote to toxicogate.

T. R. and the Grant memoirs will be my reading, along with biographies of the First Ladies.

No Ordinary Time was a favorite of mine several years ago ... which brings to mind:

Control of information about Clinton and J.F.K. library concerns me greatly ...
This was revealed in your J.F.K. segment ... Did the Kennedy Family pay Doris K.
Goodwin to write an approved J.F.K. biography? David Halberstam implied in one interview (sp?) how concerned he was as a journalist about the Arkansas control of information concerning Bill Clinton as governor ... somehow this issue appears to be "anti-American".

The Library of Congress program was very, very special — makes me more conscious of my poor handwriting!

Abigail Adams / John Adams letters, especially during Continental Congress were mentioned, especially DRAFTS of our constitution which included paragraphs abolishing slavery:

this should be
in every high
school textbook!!

Also Lincoln's efforts as a congressman trying to abolish slave trade in D. C.

this should be
in every high
school textbook!!

Many, many thanks for your year's work. Perhaps these manifold summaries now will spur on voter participation ☺ campaign reform

convention reform
ETC!

I taught public schools in Montgomery County, Md. for 30 years ... now that I'm retired I'm hooked on 48 hours of books on weekends and your 7-9am journal of newspapers throughout world.

Thank you,

"a new
C-Span
jerky"

How may I receive some of teacher's materials? I will order Lincoln video and Grant Tomb book...

Happy New Year 2000!!
