Dear Mr. Lamb,

Though I'm not able to watch C-Span every minute of the day, I am a fairly regular viewer. To me I thought your programs were fairly unbiased; you seem to show both sides of the political spectrum.

Yesterday afternoon, February 16, at 3 p.m., I turned on C-Span and got the "Ruckelshaus Show" on WF+L radio from Ft. Lauderdale, Florida. I couldn't believe what I was hearing! Have you sold out to the tabloids? What slugs! And the man who tried to defend the Clintons was cut off immediately.

Do Liman and Garfunkel know that these people were using one of their hit songs of a few years ago? The tune is the same, the title has been changed to "Screaming 21 America" instead of "Looking For America". Across the bottom of the screen was the notice that Ruck Limbaugh would be on C-Span on Saturday. I thought anyone who made fun of children was a little beneath your notice, but I guess I was wrong.

A Very Disillusioned Viewer
