

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Virginia Diez
(202) 626-4602
Monique Llanos
(202) 626-7975

"BOOKNOTES:" JULY SCHEDULE

Washington, D.C., July 1, 1993 - - "Booknotes," C-SPAN's one-on-one conversation with the author of a recent book on politics, history, or public policy, is shown every Sunday at 8:00 and 11:00 PM ET. Its hour-long format includes highlights of the book, and information about the author. July's schedule is as follows:

Sunday, July 4 - - Joel Krieger, The Oxford Companion to Politics of the World

An extensive reference concerning international affairs and domestic politics throughout the world. Mr. Krieger, the book's Editor-in-Chief, is a Professor of Political Science at Wellesley College.

Sunday, July 11 - - David Halberstam, The Fifties

A comprehensive chronicle of American culture and politics in the 1950s, including chapters concerning the Civil Rights Movement and the automobile industry. Mr. Halberstam is a renowned historian whose work includes The Best and the Brightest, a history of the Vietnam War.

Sunday, July 18 - - Molly Moore, A Woman at War: Storming Kuwait with the U.S. Marines

An eyewitness account of the war, from the only reporter to accompany a senior commanding general as he led his troops into battle. Ms. Moore is currently the New Delhi bureau chief for the Washington Post.

Sunday, July 25 - - David Remnick, Lenin's Tomb: The Last Days of the Soviet Empire

A first-person account of the events surrounding the collapse of communism in the Soviet Union, beginning with the reforms of former Prime Minister Gorbachev in 1988. The author was a Washington Post correspondent in Moscow at the time, and is now on the staff of the New Yorker.

"Booknotes" launched on April 2, 1989. Since then, more than 200 authors have appeared, including administration officials, Supreme Court justices, U.S. senators and representatives, columnists, librarians of Congress, historians, biographers, and others.

C-SPAN is available in 59.2 million households nationwide and around the world via satellite. C-SPAN is entirely funded by America's cable television companies as a public service.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Virginia Diez
(202) 626-4602
Monique Llanos
(202) 626-7975

"BOOKNOTES:" JULY SCHEDULE

Washington, D.C., July 1, 1993 - - "Booknotes," C-SPAN's one-on-one conversation with the author of a recent book on politics, history, or public policy, is shown every Sunday at 8:00 and 11:00 PM ET. Its hour-long format includes highlights of the book, and information about the author. July's schedule is as follows:

Sunday, July 4 - - Joel Krieger, The Oxford Companion to Politics of the World

An extensive reference concerning international affairs and domestic politics throughout the world. Mr. Krieger, the book's Editor-in-Chief, is a Professor of Political Science at Wellesley College.

Sunday, July 11 - - David Halberstam, The Fifties

A comprehensive chronicle of American culture and politics in the 1950s, including chapters concerning the Civil Rights Movement and the automobile industry. Mr. Halberstam is a renowned historian whose work includes The Best and the Brightest, a history of the Vietnam War.

Sunday, July 18 - - Molly Moore, A Woman at War: Storming Kuwait with the U.S. Marines

An eyewitness account of the war, from the only reporter to accompany a senior commanding general as he led his troops into battle. Ms. Moore is currently the New Delhi bureau chief for the Washington Post.

Sunday, July 25 - - David Remnick, Lenin's Tomb: The Last Days of the Soviet Empire

A first-person account of the events surrounding the collapse of communism in the Soviet Union, beginning with the reforms of former Prime Minister Gorbachev in 1988. The author was a Washington Post correspondent in Moscow at the time, and is now on the staff of the New Yorker.

"Booknotes" launched on April 2, 1989. Since then, more than 200 authors have appeared, including administration officials, Supreme Court justices, U.S. senators and representatives, columnists, librarians of Congress, historians, biographers, and others.

C-SPAN is available in 59.2 million households nationwide and around the world via satellite. C-SPAN is entirely funded by America's cable television companies as a public service.