

I don't know the answer. Today, you had George McGovern on. Some of his statements, were totally unbelievable. The right of people, to self-defense, even includes self-defense from a corrupt governmental custodianship! The right of self-defense, ain't about duck hunting! You see, there is no guarantee, that there never will be, a corrupt domestic government. Can you get more real people on your show, & fewer "talking heads"
