

“Where the Constitution comes to life everyday.”

THROUGHOUT 1987, C-SPAN will televise many special events marking the Bicentennial of the United States Constitution. Debuting January 1 with an interview with retired Chief Justice Warren Burger, chairman of the Commission on the Bicentennial of the Constitution, these programs aim to underscore the relevance of the Constitution in today's society.

BEGINNING January 3, a half-hour weekly program on the Constitution will air every Saturday at 1:00 am ET and 7:00 pm ET. In addition, C-SPAN will televise key Bicentennial events from around the nation, including the historic July meeting of the U.S. Congress in Philadelphia.

THE enclosed pocket-sized Constitution is one part of C-SPAN's effort to stimulate awareness and understanding of this remarkable document. Please accept it with our compliments. If you wish to order additional copies, they are available at 50 cents per copy.
