Dear M's. Armstrong:

I want to thank you for the beautifull card of the Capitol and the invitation for me to continue to participate with C-SPAN.

Of course I will continue to be involved with issues of concern to Our Nation.

I don't know if you are related to the famous Jack Armstrong the All American boy, but I would suspect there is a connection along the line somehow.

There was only one flaw with the card, our great Postal Service used the face of the card as a stamp testing place, it is rather amuzing they used Red and Blue ink in which they stamped rhe Dome of the U.S. Capitol.

They added a little purple ink for decorations, I plan to be in Washington on February 26th. on Veterans Business.

If time permits I plan to stop in at C-S P A N for a brief visit and I'll have the card with me that you can be sure I am me.

I have a lenghtly list of Natl. Legislators I plan to cenfer with if they are available.

I enjoy listening to C-SPAN, however I do become quite disturbed when I hear some callers complain about the Media, this morning was no exception when I listened to dome complaining about Peter Arnetts coverage in Bagdad.

I have often heard it said the U.S. has a large segment who are functionally illiterate, C-SPAN must bring out quite a few in regards to theie knowledge and respect for the United States Constitution.

I am personally very thankfull that the Founding Fathers of this Great Nation provided us with this outstanding Document.

Often I find that those who complain the loudest are the same who are least involved in the Political System.

As an individual I became very involved when I was sixteen years young.

I had on the job training at the onset of WW2 in the South Pacific and North Atlantic.

Perhaps this training made me a little better equipped to be able to deciphen when a news report is being controlled by the enemy.

However it really dosen't require a lot of knowledge to be able to do this, but it does require common sense which in my view is for the most part lacking greatly in America.

In conclusion, thanks to C-SPAN and all of the news for keeping us appraised of events.

Sincerely,
