Dear Brian,

Whew! Am I relieved! I wasn't too sure I could talk for an hour without saying some foolish thing (or things) but with your deft questioning it all came out very well. (The only comment I've heard that wasn't totally laudatory was from one of The Girls who said she thought I looked like Whistler's mother.)

Thank you so much for giving me this wonderful opportunity. I hope you were pleased.
With appreciation,
