To Programming at C-SPAN:

You cover a lot of Republican events. If it comes from the "right," you're there. So why aren't you covering "left" events as much? There are some announced nationwide each week, but you're not there! It's very lopsided!

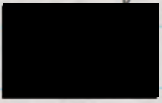

Of course, Republican events are funded well-enough to always be in Washington. In fact there's a lot of money for staged events like these! And you're always there for them!

More coverage of Mr. Sanders from Vermont!

Sincerely,

P.S. These Republicans have a real stake in lying - Rep. Arney announced to the President in March that he was going to be a one-term President because they were going to block him everywhere and "ruin" him - And you do too much for the Republicans without covering the other side, where there are in fact more people to cover.

You're too one-sided - And it's Republicans!

P.S. Today (8-18) you ran Arney lying to constituents in Texas for no special reason.
Too one-sided! Aren't there Democrats out there?
Where's Mr. Sanders of VT.?

Today (9-10-93) - the Christian Coalition is frightening - Still too tilted to the Right-wing!
