C-SPAN:

Evidently, "Communism" is alive and well and living in the United States. I am referring to the defeat of the Rohrabacher amendment. (78 yeas...329 nays).

Let me remind you what it was all about...it concerned whether "illegal immigrant children" should be deported along with their families. I admit, it might not have been the only solution, but it was a solution. I guess this is what I pay my taxes for, oh, I had better be quiet or Bill Clinton will raise my taxes some more.

I see were only one democrat voted for the amendment and 242 democrats voted against it. Thank God I'm a Republican...but then only 77 Republicans voted for the amendment and 86 Republicans voted against the amendment. At first I thought it was all Bill Clintons doing...now, I'm not sure.
