"Your Constant Parade of "liberal" newspaper reporters every morning is hard to take. I've come to the conclusion you are just like most of the networks. The woman you had this morning, (don't know her name) made a snarky remark about the D.N.C. and Bob Dole. If there hadn't been men like Bob Dole fighting and putting their lives on the line in W. War II and winning - you wouldn't be on the air and she would be wherever a dictator wanted to put her. I hope that you bunch of snarky liberals get a rude awakening one of these days, and that just might happen. Where does anyone get by, except Clinton, with calling paying someone Volunteerism. The media helps that along too.
