

Seattle, Washington
January 21, 1994

C-Span
400 N. Capitol St., NW
Suite #650
Washington, D. C. 20001

RE: Connie Brod

C-Span Management:

Basically, I have found all of your hosts and hostesses to be unbiased in their jobs of handling the vast number of guests, reporters, journalists, authors, etc., - and, especially so with the call-in viewers. I recognize the efforts they have to exercise to eliminate the "kooks" who get on the air and the need to censor. .

Connie Brod, the hostess when David Brock was featured on C-Span about his book on Bill Clinton's activities during his Governorship in Arkansas, exuded resentment that he would dare write these things, and questioned him negatively as though she was the Prosecutor in a court of law. I felt she was terribly biased and all during the program exerted every effort to make David Brock a liar.

Today, January 21, during the round-table program, Perot had been mentioned, and laughed about, and it was mentioned he had diminished from sight after Gore put him down on the NAFTA debate. A call-in viewer mentioned the Perot strength was very much on course, and, if I remember made some objectionable comments against Clinton. Connie proceeded to cut her off with no effort to allow the guests to respond to the viewer. YET, LATER IN THE PROGRAM WHEN A VIEWER CALLED IN BLASTING PEROT, SHE VERY WILLINGLY RESORTED TO ALLOWING THE GUESTS A CHANCE TO REPLY, stating, mind you, that she did not allow a response to the first Perot caller. Look at the tape -!

Now, I am not writing to uphold David Brock, I've never been a Perot supporter -

BIAS - I have not seen it in any other C-Span employees.
Connie Brod - definitely.

Yours truly,

Seattle, WA 98168

BRIAN LAMB
C-SPAN
400 N. Capitol St., NW
Suite #650
Washington, D. C. 20001

20001-1000 12

