To Brian Lamb (and C-Span),
Your concern for the sore losers, poor sports, and dirty tricksters, along with the callers who fit this category, is indeed touching.

It's been 12 long years of gridlock;
lack of concern for the people, mainly children; health care rip-offs with absolutely no leadership or interest in any but the special interests at the top, in any area.

The neglect, and cut-offs, of programs for child care, and the programs of problems in the inner cities, has been devastating, but do these right wing callers who phone in, care about this? Of course not!

The one word that symbolizes this attitude is: Greed. In fact, unlimited greed; and the ruthless pursuit of this goal.

Now the people have spoken, finally, including those who voted for Perot, of the need for CHANGE, but the down and dirty Republicans just don't or won't get it.

They are good at war, I will say that, and even better at division.

What a record! Now it's time for them to eat that record, and, as usual, they have their heads in the sand.

And you're worried, Mr. Lamb, that they should have their disharmonious, mean-spirited voices heard, after 12 years of the same!

Well, as I said, it's really touching; but you can stop worrying on their behalf, as, with your help, I'm sure their voices and propensity for mischief and dirty tricks will continue to be heard, lies or not, and mixed with half-truths and unreality.

It's 1992, not 1892, pass that along.

Very Truly yours,
Realist/Idealist
