Dear C-Span,

I am writing about my next to my favorite President, President Franklyn D. Roosevelt.

When I was a little girl, my Dad always talked about President Roosevelt. And what a good, kind man he was. My Dad told me how President Roosevelt helped the poor + ^{the} down trodden. How he started the Social Security program. And how millions of people are today enjoying it in their later years.

I too, but I never worked too much, I raised my three children.
So I don't get much. But my Dad always talked so highly of President Franklyn D. Roosevelt.

That is why today I am a staunch Democrat & so proud of it. Also President Roosevelt was quite rich, but he always thought of the poor & lower class people what a great man he was, & I am so grateful to my Dad for teaching me how to be a proud American & to have had such a great, thoughtful & super human being. In all the years since President Roosevelt was a great President we are all better off today, thanks for his great mind, we are a better people today.

Sincerely
