Brian Lamb,

I decided to write to you, but I don't expect you will read it through. I have been calling for 3 yrs. & cannot get my call answered. I hear these Hate mongers & Right Wingers & Pat Robertson & that other Clownspeople & Republicans & have listened as they have bashed Clinton. They have called him every name in the book. No matter what the issue or nominal or policy they keep it up & get on the air.

Now, if I can tell & recognize these people why can't you people? You come & keep over.

(2) Goes out the window for them. The old bag from St Louis called 4 times in 3 weeks, & then got on again when the new mo started. No matter how they try to disguise their values or agendas I can tell who they are. & Not once have any of you people try to stop this hate. & neither does the Republicans in office.

My guess is you all Republicans & you love it. Cause they are doing your bidding.

(One evening about 6 p.m. our (Nels time) Your producer did answer my call. I wouldn't let me on. It was Mator Vater night. But I noticed the Hate mongers got on as usual. & they don't get cut off till they are done spelling their hate. I'm disgusted. It just looks like a rehearsal for these people.

I know I'll never get to give my opinion on the man yet decided to write I'm a Great Person, but voted for Clinton & proud of it. No other President I can remember (Roosevelt) I'm 57. No other has had to keep to every campaign promise. No other has taken the insults, name calling & criticism that this President is taking. Wheres your sense of decency. I noticed, here a couple of times one just this morning 3/1/93. Dick

Channey was on - & this lady - was giving it back to
