I watch C-SPAN because I am interested in Constitution and Foreign policy. I am interested in (my-our) country because it gives me freedom even though I was born sixty-one years ago without a father who I could see. I saw him at my age of 59 years and I was delighted to find a good Christian father who had made a mistake and got forgiven by God, I trust, because now he is with my Lord. I've never gotten a free penny for food, clothing and shelter or education. However, the Lord now gives me 16-30 CTV programs weekly. "Living Joyfully" on seven different CTV and I have done cable casting (that) five and ½ years. So I enjoy C-SPAN on Cable so I can learn from TV
