

005154 NOV2591

LENOX, MA.
#01240
Nov. 16, 1991

The Editors

C-SPAN

400 North Capitol St.

Washington, D.C. #20001

Gentlemen:

As a C-SPAN fan, who watches your programs daily, I was disappointed in your slanted partisan program last evening.

You had a panel of journalists, somebody from Newsweek and U.S. News - and then you had two people who were unabashedly Republicans.

One was a man named

Roger Stone, who spoke of "we Republicans", and the other was Alexander Castellanos, Republican Political Advisory Consultant.

Although on the whole I think you try to portray a bipartisan attitude, this program was obviously pro-Republican.

As a staunch Democrat who believes that the Republican Party is responsible for our country's serious troubles,
I would like to call this to your attention.

Sincerely,

(Mrs. [REDACTED])

From Mrs. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

LENOX, MA.

To The Editors
C-SPAN
400 North Capitol St.
Washington
D.C. #20001

✓