

Madam Secretary: NO REPLY NECESSARY

I'm writing this card to you, because Brian is too busy to read it. Brian commented a few days ago about all the people who won't appear anymore because of viewer's nasty statements.

Good Lord!! politicians are the last people who should complain about being attacked! Since the days of Jackson, they have accused each other of every sort of misfeasance and malfeasance & even of siring bastard children! These complaints by the polotricksters and establishment co-opted journalists (both left and right) ring a bit hollow.
