Saw your interview with the editor & publisher of Mc Barkle's Magazine (no doubt I don't have the spelling correct) - We did not like his trashing of U. P.
Quaife - He is a biased, egotistical ass!
The interview became very boring and tedious - No one could what he thought about anything - He is only the "dog" of the profession no redeeming qualities at all - I guess they can't all be winners. He wasn't!
