

P.S. I wrote this in anger before the President's air force are arrived at El Toro. Thank you.

In having a pro-Nixon person here in California,
I stop say it was not right to have negatives on and to emphasize this on the occasion of his watching Nixon's farewell to be buried,

was shameful. I don't know if it was deliberation on CSPAN's part to have this man on your coverage - or not, but you obviously knew what he thought about the President.
I had hoped CSPAN was non-partisan, but I guess, again,
I'm wrong. Shame on Jules Witomer to spoil a moving service
with such evident bitterness.
He had a negative opinion of the day of mourning and I am so sorry he had to be interviewed on your program.
Sincerely

I don't agree with everything he did, but let's say Watergate, aside, for heaven's sake!

[REDACTED]
Lawrence, CA 90505

CSPAN

To Brian Lamb

400 N. Capital St, N.W.

650

9

